INVESTIGATION MEETING 24 April 2007
DATE OF DETERMINATION 24 April 2007

ORDER OF AUTHORITY BY CONSENT

[1] This morning I convened a meeting with the parties to investigate an alleged personal grievance. During a break in the meeting the representatives advised me that the parties had agreed terms on which to resolve the matter. They advised that they wished me to record their agreement in the form of an order by consent. They also advised that they wished those terms to remain confidential.

[2] I therefore dispose of the matter by means of an order by consent, the terms of which are attached. The publication of those terms of settlement is prohibited pursuant to Clause (10) (2) of the Second Schedule of the Employment Relations Act 2000.
