CONSENT DETERMINATION OF THE AUTHORITY

[1] By joint memorandum of the parties' representatives, the parties have advised they have resolved the matter before the Authority on their own terms. The terms of their resolution are full, final and binding in respect of the employment relationship problem between them. A record of those terms is held on the Authority file. By consent and by this determination those terms are now also the orders of the Authority in this matter.

[2] The parties agreed the terms on which they resolved the matter would remain confidential to them. For that purpose, under clause 10 of the second schedule of the Employment Relations Act 2000 (the Act), I prohibit publication of all or any part of those terms.

[3] At the parties' request I note that this determination is enforceable under s 137(1)(b) of the Act.
